“If your business has pivoted, and your original business model has been altered, it’s important to make sure that all contracts reflect those adjustments and that the things you want to be covered are covered.

At Nauman Smith, we offer practical solutions for our clients. As your business grows and your business expenses expand, it will always be a worthwhile investment to have a seasoned attorney review your contracts and ensure your best interests are being met.”

150 YEARS OF CONTRACT REVIEW & NEGOTIATION

SERVING AS THE EYES AND VOICE OF
OUR BUSINESS COMMUNITY

Nauman Smith’s Business & Employment Law team of attorneys is ready and responsive when you need us. For businesses that don’t use in-house counsel, Nauman Smith offers time-tested attorneys who are accessible when you need us and come to the table with a broad knowledge of the legal areas impacting your business.

We bring into each client relationship 150 years of working through the patterns and issues in which business owners often require legal support. In addition to a full suite of legal counsel, we offer our business clients contract review and negotiation services.

At Nauman Smith, we begin this work with a commitment to understand the full extent of how the product or service will be utilized by our client and how it will impact their business.

VENDOR CONTRACT SERVICES INCLUDE:

- negotiating terms for either the licensor or the licensee
- reviewing contractual clauses
- assessing that buyer needs are adequately covered
- evaluating intellectual property issues

WE ALSO OFFER DRAFTING, REVIEW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION FOR OTHER BUSINESS CONTRACTS SUCH AS:

- employment agreements
- employee non-competes
- distributor agreements
